NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE WAR.

-The war spirit continues with unabated interest Yesterday the 11th Regiment, Col. Maidhoff; the 22d, Col. Aspinwall; the 23d (Brooklyn), Col. Everdell; and 37th, Col. Roome, took their departure from this city for Harrisburg. Gen. Sandford ordered the 4th Regiment Artillery to get ready to march, Gen. Couch to furnish all the necessary equipments, on their arrival at his headquarters. ther of other regiments are ready to march today, and will be forwarded as fast as they can procure transportation. The soldiers who left yesterday were in excellent spirits, and seemed to be possessed with as much patriotic enthusiasm and military vigor as when they were summoned to respond at the booming of the first Rebel gun against Fort Sumter, more than two years ago. The 10th Regi-ment Volunteers, or National Zonaves, are progreesing favorably with their reorganization, under Col. Bendix, and they expect to be ready to march, as a militia regiment, with 600 men, on Monday night.

-In the cargo of one of the prize steamers lately captured and brought into this port, large quantities of tomahawks have been discovered, manufactured by British neutral traders, and sent to the Rebels for awning the Indians to aid in the prosecution of this accursed Rebellion. Also, large quantities of a nondescript savage weapon, something between a tomahawk and a butcher's cleaver, stamped "W. Gilpin, Wedges Mills, 1862," evidently intended for arming

-A company of colored men arrived at Harrisburg on the 17th, from Philadelphia, whose services were declined by Maj.-Gen. Couch, on the ground that no authority had been granted by the War Department for the muster of colored troops into the service of the United States for a less period than three years. It is well to be very careful of the sanctity of red tape, but this seems to be drawing it very fine indeed.

-Col. James Johnson, with a Pennsylvania regiment, last week made a three days' reconnoissance along the Chickahominy nearly to Charles City Court-House, driving in the enemy's pickets, capturing a number of the 10th Virginia cavalry, securing large berds of fine cattle, horses, mules, saddles, bridles, buggies, wagons, guns, over $500 worth of tobacco, and destroying valuable tool-shops, forage

"our most important local news is for the present contraband. Great activity prevails in the Department, and it is particularly manifested in the command at Yorktown." The reader may possibly guess that this has reference to Richmond. It is added that Gen. Keyes is in front to conduct "aggressive movements" in person.

-On Friday, Benjamin Haduin, of Company B. Provost Guard, and Samuel D. Crumb, of Company B, 89th New-York, will be shot at Fort Delaware. Crumb is charged with deserting twice, and also with forging his descriptive list, by which he drew eight months' pay. Haduin also drew $200 in money, without the intention of serving as a soldier.

-One of the largest meetings ever held in New Brunswick, N. J., convened there on Wednesday evening, to hear speeches in support of the war from Wm. D. Kelley, Member of Congress, of Philadelphia, and Henry B. Stanton, of New-York. ## THE WAR NEWS.

The Invasion excitement is rapidly subsiding.

GENS. FREMONT AND SIGEL. us for publication:

New-York, Jone 16, 1862 TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES: In the present mergency will you allow Major-Gens. Fremont and Sigel to issue a call for volunteers to march at once to the defense

> FREDERICK KAPP. SIGISMUND KAUFMANN, CHARLES KESSMAN. ANSWER.

WASHINGTON, June 16, 1863. To FREDERICE KAPP AND OTHERS: The Governor of New York proposes to send us troops, and if he wishes the assistance of Gen. Fremont and Gen. Sigel, one or both he can ance of Gen. Fremont and Gen. Sigel, one or both, he can have it. If he does not wish them, it would but breed confusion for us to set them at work independently of him. A. LINCOLN.

There is, we suppose, no harm in an expression of regret that the President should have thought proper to decline the request of Messrs. Kapp, Kaufmann, and Keseman, or, more properly speaking, to refer a matter of so much moment to the Governor of this State. The three gentlemen who made the suggestion are among our most respectable citizens, very earnest and devoted in their loyalty to their adopted country, and who, as Germans, are in a position to know the feelings of that class of our countrymen and the alacrity with which they would rally to the standards of Frement and Sigel to resist invasion. It is to be presumed that the emergency of the moment is such as the justify the Government in calling upon several of the Northern States to contribute a large force of militia to hurry toward the seat of war, and whatever may be the inconvenience and sacrifice which these men are compelled to undergo, there has been no hesitation on their part in render. General on Gen. McClellan's Staff, who has been acting prompt obedience to the call. If there are tens of thousands more who stand ready to render voluntary service if the authority is given to Generals whom they honor and trust left Liverpool at noon on the 3d, and Queeustown to lead them, we can conceive of no good reason why the authority should not be given, and these volunteers led to the field under the influence of a double enthusiasm.

We all very well know, for the country has been assured of it again and again, that Gens. Fremont and Sigel, as well as Gen. Butler, have not been ordered to active commands long ago simply because the President saw nothing for them to do. But that the present crisis calls for a much larger force than is at the immediate command of the Government we have the Government's own large that there must be some inevitable delay in raising it.
